On the southeastern coast of Istria, where green hills meet the sea, where nature and heritage come together, there are two small towns with different but mutually complementary characters - Labin and Rabac, just five kilometers apart. Rabac, due to its white pebble beaches, rich Mediterranean vegetation and crystal clear sea, has been called the pearl of Kvarner. Once a small fishing village, today Rabac is an attractive tourist destination that hides a wealth of cultural events in a network of colorful streets. The green surroundings of Rabac and the picturesque hinterland invite you to adventure, research and recreation throughout the year. Not far from Rabac and Labin in a small settlement by the sea, a piece of paradise by the sea is for sale. This rarity on the market, unburdened from every busy effort, is only 30 meters from the sea and offers peace and tranquility, the silence of which is broken only by the sound of the waves
